HAWLEY NEWS

Let's start out this newsletter by saying 2019 will be a better year than 2018. And we're starting on the right foot, cold weather not much snow and everyone coming back to the centers feeling better. Whatever sickness is out there it sure grabs a hold of you and doesn't let go. We had a nice New Years Eve gathering, we song Auld Lang Syne, had noise makers ate snacks and wished everyone a Happy, Healthy New Year.

All of us at The Hawley Senior Center would like to wish Andrea Whyte the best on her new adventures and Happy Retirement. You have served your county well and now it is your time to enjoy all that life has to offer.

On January 15th at 11am we had the pleasure of having Herb and Ruth Roman here. Herb put on a magic act for us; what a great show! Maybe next time we can have him do more tricks for us. It was nice to see old friends and talk about old times, having the same job in common and working for the same agency.

We have organ music on Tuesday's and Thursday's starting at 11am and sing-a-long at 11:30. Please plan your schedule accordingly. We had our first sing-a-long and everyone had a really good time.

Our Chinese New Year will be held on Tuesday February 5th. This year is the year of the Pig. Valentine's Day celebration will be Thursday February 14th. Bring your sweetheart that day and show them the LOVE.

Presidents' Day will be celebrated with music by Andy Anderson on Tuesday February 19th. We'll have a good lunch followed by a slice of delicious Cherry Pie. Did George Washington really chop down the Cherry Tree? Also for the beginning of March we will be celebrating Mardi Gras on Tuesday March 5th. I'm looking forward to seeing you here. Look over all the bus trips that are going on this year (below) and get your reservation in early to guarantee your seat on the bus. Tax time is beginning in February so keep an eye out for dates, times and locations and set your appointment up through Honesdale at 570-253-4262.

Our February Birthdays are: Brenda Nonnemacher, Joanne Wiley, Raymond Johnson, Andy Carroll, Frank Pierce, Mike O'Connor, Robert Nurnberger, Christina Peirano, Carol Carroll, Kathryn Showers, Bernard Launay, Chad Mania, Liz McGonigal and Paul Bonczek. Have a wonderful Birthday.

Since I was able to get a head start on bus trips this year, here is a list of our trips for 2019. This way you can mark your calendars and plan ahead...

⇒ Wednesday, March 13: Mohegan Sun Casino
$22 per person

⇒ Thursday, April 11: Hotel Anthracite Polish
Festival $60

⇒ Wednesday, May 8: Bethel Woods & Resorts
World Casino $35

⇒ Tuesday, June 18: Mt. Airy Casino Beach
Boys Tribute $55

⇒ Thursday, August 1: Corning Museum of Glass $54

⇒ Monday - Thursday, September 23 - 26: Cape May NJ $550 per person double occupancy

⇒ Wednesday, October 2: Penn's Peak Neil Diamond Tribute $68

⇒ Sunday & Monday, October 13 & 14: Adams County Apple Festival & Gettysburg ???

⇒ Thursday, November 13: Mohegan Sun Casino $22

If you need more details the flyers are at the centers or you can call me (570-630-2385) and leave a message and I will call you back. There was not enough interest in Alaska so that trip is off our list.

Hope to see you on the bus! Debbie

Ageless Love

Ageism is a factor inhibiting romance. In general, our society seems more comfortable thinking that older people simply do not have sex or simply are not interested in anything but bingo and playing bridge. So, even for long-term married couples, public displays of intimacy and open discussion of intimacy are not always comfortable. And, sadly, some seniors also hold this ageist view and this can present a self-imposed obstacle.

What We Know About Elderly Romance

Research shows us that for one thing, we don't know that much about sex and the elderly! In one study, only 22 percent of women and 38 percent of men had discussed sex with a doctor since age 50. And until recently, this was not a big area of interest for researchers. With the booming population of seniors, more are looking into it.

Findings we do have suggest that most of us will continue to have sex well into our 80's and that the number one reason for not engaging is simply a lack of a partner – especially for women. Another reason is health status.

We also have some evidence to suggest that the more often we engage in sex, the more likely we are to live longer. While it could be that healthier people are more likely to do both things, having a partner and having sex can release endorphins and other hormones that help us feel better, reduce pain, and ease anxiety. Loneliness is a big predictor of health problems like depression, high blood pressure, and heart disease. People who are lonely are more likely to be pessimistic about the future and more likely to lead to needing long-term care. And, lonely people are more likely to engage in unhealthy behaviors like overeating or not exercising.

Easing Loneliness

Many people will urge a lonely elder to “get out more.” But what does that mean? Often, the same things that help younger people engage socially are the same things that would work for seniors. For example, volunteering time toward a cause can have you meeting others, taking a class, working out in a gym, or joining a club. While this is no guarantee of finding a romantic relationship, it will at least get a person more engaged and increase the odds of meeting someone in his or her peer group.

Many lonely elders will enter into an assisted living situation in order to find a group of peers; if this is not possible, seeking out a senior center can offer daily or weekly activities. This is a common move after the death of a spouse. Extra support is needed after the death of a spouse and family and friends may need to make an effort to extend themselves and make themselves available to a recently widowed person.

Some problems are simply caused by a lack of transportation. For rural seniors, finding a way into town can be a real barrier to meeting others or engaging in activities.

Lastly, we need to address the ageism that can also be a barrier for seniors who think they cannot pursue a relationship due to age. We need to change our view of seniors in general to include anticipating the full range of human activity is possible and desirable for all.
